FLOOR DEBATE

March 19, 2004 LB 1047

certainly being an environment and a state that is a good structure and a good workplace for insurance companies to locate and operate out of is certainly a good thing. There's no environmental downside. There just...there aren't any negatives that I can see. So with that, I thank the body for their patience and their willingness to allow us to do this on the agenda. And I hope that we can support this and take care of it. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Chambers, on AM2298.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Speaker Bromm a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm, would you respond?

SPEAKER BROMM: I would.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bromm, I'm wondering if thanks are in order. You said you thanked the body for allowing you to put this on the agenda. What do we have to say about what goes on the agenda? Or are you just being gracious?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Chambers, I know how the agenda can be changed, and so I know the body can have something to say about that if they choose to do so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who in the body would have anything to say about it?

SPEAKER BROMM: Twenty-five people.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You think there are 25 people in this body who would challenge something you put on the agenda? I'm not going to ask you any...to answer that. Members of the Legislature, I had had this matter discussed with me about this insurance company, and the people who talked to me I have confidence in, I trust. But I don't trust insurance companies. I think they operate one fingernail within the law, because of the way the laws are drafted to favor them. I view insurance
